Relive The Magic

A beautifully designed masterpiece that belongs in an art gallery.

Adorned with its signature rainbow colours, this fun, quirky and extroverted machine brings back the joy of accessible pick-up-and-play games, offering an experience that modern gaming has lost

With its timeless aesthetic and vibrant personality, The Spectrum isn't just an updated replica of the iconic Eighties home computer, it's a work of art that delivers a nostalgic yet ever-relevant gaming adventure for everyone.
